

HIC - Document: Dwelling Resources in South America, Architectural Design 8, August 1963 - John F C Turner

Document: Dwelling Resources in South America, Architectural Design 8, August 1963 - John F C Turner

John F C Turner

Dwelling Resources in South America,Â

Architectural Design 8, August 1963

Describing the problems that face South American countries in the field of housing: problems made daily more acute by population increases and movements causing an 'urban explosion' whose only precedent is that suffered by Europe in the second half of the nineteenth century.

* Download individual articles as pdf:

Cover and preface

Village artisanâs self â build house

Â Â Courtesy Patrick W Crooke

The scope of the problem

Urbanisation case history in Peru

Â Â Courtesy William Mangin

Government aided rural housing

Mass urban re-housing problems

Lima barriadas today

Barriada integration and development

Â Â With acknowledgement to Margaret Grenfell

Minimal government-aided settlements

Co-operative housing project

Evolution of a government housing agency

Aided housing in a new industrial city

Conclusions

Â Â Courtesies to Kitty Wilson Turner and Pat Crooke

* To know more about John Turner's pioneering and influential work on housing in development, click here.

